BIO – Lance Miller,

2005 World Champion of Public Speaking

Lance Miller is a graduate of Michigan State University and has held sales, marketing and management positions with the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Organizing Committee, Nestle, Anheuser Bush and Katz Media Group. For 15 years he developed and managed sales and marketing programs for businesses in the fields of Law, Construction, International Finance, Alternative Health and the Internet.

From 1990 to 1993 he served as the National Spokesperson for Citizens for an Alternative Tax System where he spoke throughout California and Nevada and was the guest on over 100 Talk Radio Shows across America.

From 1997 – 2003 he served as Vice-President of the International Foundation for Human Rights and Tolerance where he organized and led International Human Rights Marathons in the U.S and Europe covering over 10,000 miles in over 15 countries speaking in over 300 public forums and official gatherings on the importance of fundamental human rights as a foundation to civilization, peace and economic prosperity.

He served as President of The Way to Happiness Foundation International from 2004 – 2008 promoting Character and Ethics programs in over 2,200 prisons, over 150 drug detoxification and education centers and has serviced nearly 12 million students in over 11,000 schools across America.

Lance joined Toastmasters in 1992. He considers himself a product of the Toastmasters Communication and Leadership Programs. He is a DTM and has completed 17 CTMs and 2 ATMGs on the communication track. He has delivered over 1,500 speeches in over 25 countries and has appeared on over 100 TV & radio shows. Lance has held several officer positions at the Club and District level and was instrumental in taking his home club #4 in the World in 1998/99 for clubs with 40 + members. In 2005 he emerged from a field of over 25,000 contestants to earn the title of Toastmasters 2005 World Champion of Public Speaking.
